

Name: _____

Date: _____

Adverbs – Re-write the Sentence

Directions: re-write the sentence by adding an adverb from the word bank.

Note: some words in the word bank are adjectives. Choose wisely!

An adverb is used to describe how, where, when, how often and why something happens.

It describes verbs, other adverbs, adjectives, and phrases.

WORD BANK

correctly	large	politely	worried
defeated	extremely	anywhere	elegantly
eagerly	small	nervous	light
relieved	clever	curiously	rapid
recently	somewhere	modern	gratefully

	Sentence
Ex.	The fire is hot.
	The fire is extremely hot.
1.	Donna accepted money from her grandmother.
2.	The dog wandered around the yard.
3.	Tommy is happy about his new bike.
4.	Sarah is waiting for her test score.
5.	We went to the zoo.
6.	The ball landed in the neighbor's yard.
7.	Please spell the word.
8.	Susan wore her mother's necklace.
9.	Tom walked the old lady across the street.
10.	The needle could be in the haystack.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Adverbs – Re-write the Sentence

Directions: re-write the sentence by adding an adverb from the word bank.

Note: some words in the word bank are adjectives. Choose wisely!

An adverb is used to describe how, where, when, how often and why something happens.

It describes verbs, other adverbs, adjectives, and phrases.

WORD BANK

correctly

large

politely

worried

defeated

extremely anywhere

elegantly eagerly small nervous

light

relieved clever

curiously

rapid

recently

somewhere

modern gratefully

Sentence
Ex.	The fire is hot.
	The fire is extremely hot.
1.	Donna accepted money from her grandmother.
	Donna gratefully accepted money from her grandmother.
2.	The dog wandered around the yard.
	The dog curiously wandered around the yard.
3.	Tommy is happy about his new bike.
	Tommy is extremely happy about his new bike.
4.	Sarah is waiting for her test score.
	Sarah is eagerly waiting for her test score.
5.	We went to the zoo.
	We recently went to the zoo.
6.	The ball landed in the neighbor's yard.
	The ball landed somewhere in the neighbor's yard.
7.	Please spell the word.
	Please spell the word correctly .
8.	Susan wore her mother's necklace.
	Susan elegantly wore her mother's necklace.
9.	Tom walked the old lady across the street.
	Tom politely walked the old lady across the street.
10.	The needle could be in the haystack.
	The need could be anywhere in the haystack.